Dear Ilya,

As you are aware, we are very dissatisfied with the progress at the above referenced project. You have had duct-workers on site for 3 weeks and you are still not even 50% complete with duct installation.

At this point, the slow progression has caused the project to be approximately 2 weeks behind schedule. While your current installers, Ryan & Angel, appear to be competent mechanics, the work is simply not being performed as efficiently as the construction schedule warrants.

Subsequently, it is our suggestion that you try using alternate manpower on this project, since it is vital that you bring this project back on schedule.

Kind regards,
IVY WALK, INC.

Dear Ilya,

As you are aware, we are very dissatisfied with the progress at the above referenced project. You have had duct-workers on site for 3 weeks and you are still not even 50% complete with duct installation.

At this point, the slow progression has caused the project to be approximately 2 weeks behind schedule. Simply stated, the work is not being performed with any efficiency whatsoever.

Subsequently, it is our suggestion that you remove your current installers, Ryan & Angel, from the project and replace them with workers who can complete the project in a timely manner, since it is vital that you bring this project back on schedule.

Kind regards,

MEMO

Date: 08/05/2005

Dear: Mr Norales:

This letter is to serve you as final and only disciplinary warning.

Your failure to attend safety and coordination meeting, which took place at the main office Yesterday 8-4-05 cannot be tolerated.

Please note, that any additional disciplinary violations, such as late arrival to, or early leave from the project, insubordination (like it was shown Yesterday) to your direct supervisor or unscheduled leave will result in severe disciplinary actions.

DISCIPLINARY MEMO

To: Simon Norales

This it to inform you that the overtime hours that were reported to your Forman Igor Sinayuk for the week January 9,2006 were not accurate. In fact they were inflated by 3 hours as your own written record indicated. The reported hours to your foreman were 16 hours and the actual time worked was 13 hours. Which you had confirmed only after your foreman requested a detailed description of overtime work in writing. This type of behavior is completely unacceptable and will not be tolerated.

In addition other employees that worked with you on the shift had reported that you as a lead mechanic had also directed them to inflate there hours. This behavior is completely unethical and unacceptable; any further attempts to influence other employees to illegal actions will lead to your automatic dismissal.

DISCIPLINARY MEMO

To: Simon Norales

- On 02.15.06 Roman visited Saint Francis Hospital at 3:00 PM to explain the scope of the job for the following morning but you had already left the site. Yet you called in at 3:36 to call out, once again you are supposed call-out while you are still at the job site NOT once you left. You had left the job early and called as though you had worked a full day.

In addition you had stated that you left early because you did not have lunch. Other parties on the job site had attested that you indeed took lunch. This behavior is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. If any employee is caught lying they will be penalized. A record will be made and sent to the union.

Please note that you are now on probation subject to disciplinary action this is a second disciplinary memo in a two-week period.

Best Regards
